

Weekly Class Newsletter

January 17, 2016

Welcome back everyone!

We are finishing up our area and perimeter unit and pushing forward to fractions at the end of this week. Saturday is very important to have your child here so we can move forward with fractions and work on their biography projects. If they are not here this Saturday, they will have to make up work missed the Monday week. I also have your biography project information passed to the students so please read over so you are aware. Homework will be due this Saturday and if they are not coming Saturday it will need to be completed by Friday.

I do have the dates for the make up days as follows: Saturday, January 20; Saturday, April 1; dismissal at all days will be 12:40 and no lunch will be provided.

Please have your child bring a healthy snack so we can have that for a few minutes before dismissal.
